Payment of Dividend

The year-end dividend for the 145th fiscal year will be paid out at your nearby branch and local office of Japan Post Bank Co., Ltd. located throughout Japan and post office (bank agent) in accordance with the enclosed "Receipt of the Year-end Dividend" during the payout period from June 28, 2010 to July 30, 2010. If you have already designated a specific account to which the dividend should be remitted, please confirm that the dividend is correctly remitted to your account as stated in the enclosed "Year-end Dividend Calculation Sheet" and "Reference to the Beneficiary Account for Dividend Transfer." If you have instructed us to pay dividends by way of allocation in proportion to the number of shares you hold, please contact your account management institution (securities company, etc.) for your account to which the dividend should be remitted.
In addition, please keep the enclosed "Year-end Dividend Calculation Sheet" at hand because it may be used as supporting materials when you file an income tax return.
